

CSRA Chinese Culture Center (Chinese School) Online Course/Application Parent/Guardian Consent Form

In order to provide your child with the most effective tools to enhance their learning, CSRA Chinese Culture Center (Chinese School) (CSRA CS) may use web-based services and applications, which would require parental permission for your child to obtain access to the internet. Due to Federal Law, any users under the age of 13 must obtain parental permission to use their sites and often require an email address or other personal identifiers information. Our recently embarked web-based learning is operated by third parties, ZOOM. Under federal law entitled the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA) and The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), these websites and CSRA CS must provide parental notification and obtain parental consent before collecting student's photo/audio/video recordings from children under the age of 13.

This consent form covers all types of online courses and/or applications, included but not limited to video courses and web-based courses. Your child's image may be transmitted during video portions of the online courses.
